[XXth Year.] THURSDAY, February 28, 1765. [No. 1034.]

LEGHORN, October 15.

THE following Corſican Manifeſto, ſaid to have been ſworn to by Paoli and his Adherents in the Year 1754, and lately renewed by them, on account of the deſigned Embarkation of French Troops for the Aſſiſtance of Genoa, is now handed about here.

"We have ſworn, and we call upon God to Witneſs it, that we will all of us ſooner die than enter into any Negociation with the Republick of Genoa, or return under its Yoke. If the Powers of Europe, and the French in particular, withdrawing their Compaſſion from an unhappy People, ſhould arm themſelves againſt us, and concur in our total Deſtruction, we will repel Force by Force; we will fight like deſperate Men, determined either to conquer or die, till our Strength and Spirits are quite exhauſted, our Arms fall out of our Hands; and when we have no Strength to take them up again, when all the Reſources of our Courage ſhall be exhauſted, our Deſpair ſhall furniſh us with the laſt, which ſhall be to imitate the famous Example of the Saguntines, by roſhing voluntarily into the Fire, rather than ſubmit ourſelves, and Poſterity, to the inſupportable Yoke of Genoeſe Tyranny and Slavery."

Madrid, Nov. 13. It is ſaid that ſome Clouds are riſing between our Court and that of Liſbon.

Hamburgh, Nov. 22. By the late Fire at Konigſberg, 22,000 Buſhels of Flour, and upwards of 1000 Tons of Salt, that were in ſix of the King's Magazines, were conſumed. The Fire, which happened in the Night, was occaſioned by Lightning that fell upon the old Town and the Munikenhoff, from whence it ſpread itſelf like a Torrent. The whole Damage is eſtimated at ſeveral Millions. Numbers of People, particularly in the Royal Hoſpital, periſhed in the Flames.

Hamburgh, Nov. 27. Our Letters from Konigſberg, the Capital of the Kingdom of Pruſſia, adviſe, that the Fire there of the 11th and 12th of this Month, has conſumed 700 private Houſes, the great Hoſpital, 5 Churches, ſix of the King's Magazines, and ſeveral others belonging to Merchants.

They write from the Lower Elbe, that an Earthquake has ſwallowed up thirty Arpents of Ground in the Environs of that River, and left inſtead thereof a Lake of the ſame Superficies, but upwards of forty Fathoms in Depth.

LONDON,

Nov. 13. A Letter from Bologne, by Saturday's French Mail, mentions the Death of the much admired Engliſh Satiriſt, Mr. Charles Churchill, who went thither lately on a Viſit to Mr. Wilkes. Some Reports ſay, that his Brother does not believe the Advices firſt received of his Death, and which were ſaid to have come from a certain popular Gentleman, to be genuine. Others again pretend, that immediately on the Report of Mr. Churchill's Illneſs, a Right Hon. Peer ordered a Cutter inſtantly to ſail for Bologne, and to wait there till it ſhould be known whether he died, or was likely to recover, and that the News of his Decreaſe was firſt brought to the ſaid Nobleman by this Cutter. Again, others ſay, that the Poet's Corpſe was actually buried at Bologne, and that the Meſſenger that brought the News ſaw it interred.

Nov. 15. We hear the Government are about to contract with ſuch American Subjects as have it in their Power to ſupply, from their own Manufactures, what naval or military Stores may be wanted for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Fleets and Armies on that Station, viz. Coudage and Cables from Boſton; Anchors, Chains, Bombs, Ordnance, Cannon Ball, and Iron Work for Shipping, from the Founderies of Quebeck.

The Body of the late Mr. Churchill, which was interred at Dover the 12th inſt. was brought thither on the 10th from Bologne by Humphry Coates, Eſq; who immediately after giving Orders concerning it, ſet out for London.

We are credibly informed, that the final Purchaſe of the Iſle of Man to the Crown, is now on the Carpet.

It is ſaid the late Maſter of the Rolls died worth near Two Hundred Thouſand Pounds.

Nov. 17. The Earl of Halifax having appeared to the Actions brought againſt him and ſeveral of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, by Mr. Beardmore and his Clerk, the Rev. Mr. Entick, and Meſſrs. Wilſon and Fell, for falſe Impriſonment; it is imagined that theſe Five Cauſes will be tried at Weſtminſter-Hall, the Sittings after this Term.

On Thurſday the Will of the late Right Hon. Sir Thomas Clarke, Maſter of the Rolls, was opened, in which are the following Legacies, viz. The Earl of Macclesfield Reſiduary Legatee. To St. Luke's Hoſpital, 30,000 l. To Mr. Sandon, one of his Executors, 1000 l. To Mr. Turner, his Train-Bearer, 400 l. And to each of his other Servants, 20 l.

The Remains of the late Mr. Churchill were interred at Dover on Monday laſt. He was ſeized with a violent Cold and Fever on the 29th ult. and died on Sunday following, the 4th of November inſtant.

The Beulah, Green, from New York for London, was loſt the 12th inſtant off Biddeford, the Maſter and ſeveral of the Men were drowned. On board the above Ship Col. Aires, who has been Chief Engineer for ſeveral Years in America, was a Paſſenger, and was drowned. Only Three Lives were ſaved.

The late Mr. Churchill has left his Manuſcripts to Mr. Wilkes; ſuch of them as he ſhall approve, to be printed. And we likewiſe hear Mr. Wilkes is writing the Hiſtory of England from the Revolution.

Margate Roads, Nov. 7. Laſt Night we had a hard Gale of Wind here at S. S. W. and this Morning ſeveral Ships in the Roads hung out Signals of Diſtreſs. The Charleſtown, Captain Simpſon, bound to Penſacola, in Weſt Florida, with Giles Philips, Eſq; and Family on board, going to make a Settlement at Mobille, hung out a Signal, and fired a Gun of Diſtreſs, being in the utmoſt Danger of driving aſhore, and every Soul on board periſhing, parted from her Cable, and ran into the Pier here, where they all got ſafe on ſhore.

Nov. 20. It is confidently ſaid the Court of Madrid has finally propoſed ſuch Terms of Payment for the Ranſom of the Manillas, as our Miniſtry, conſiſtent either with their own Honour, or that of the Nation, can by no Means accept.

Mr. Williams is committed to the King's Bench, and will receive Sentence the firſt Day of next Term, for re-publiſhing the North-Briton, No. 45, in Volumes.

It is certainly on the Carpet, for the Britiſh Plantations to have the Privilege of Repreſentatives in the Houſe of Commons in England.

Nov. 29. Private Advices from France mention, that the Spaniards have actually an Army of Twenty-five Thouſand Men in the Neighbourhood of Malaga, which occaſions much Speculation.

On Saturday Morning General Boſcawen ſet out for Ireland, on Affairs of Importance.

Yeſterday there was a great Council at St. James's, which did not break up till near Four o'Clock.

This Morning two foreign Diſpatches were ſent off, ſaid to be for the Courts of Liſbon and Madrid.

It is ſaid a certain Northern Court hath lately acceded to the Family Compact, in a Manner the Britiſh Miniſtry can by no Means overlook.

Several Purſers Warrants have this Week been made out for Capital Ships.

It is now ſaid, that two Seventy-four, a Sixty, and two Fifty Gun Ships, are the Men of War appointed to ſail with all Expedition for the Mediterranean.

All the Men of War now outward bound at Portſmouth, Plymouth and Chatham, are ordered to take on board their full Complement of Marines.

Yeſterday Mr. Kearſly appeared at the Court of King's Bench, Weſtminſter Hall, to receive Sentence for originally publiſhing No. 45 of the North-Briton; and he was ſent to the King's Bench Priſon till next Term, when Judgment is to be paſſed.

It is even ſuſpected that Spain, in Conjunction with France, are meditating new Broils in Europe, and that Portugal is the firſt Object for Attack; and we hear our Government are apprehenſive of ſomething of this Sort; and we further hear, that by their prudent Management, there is not leſs than two Millions of Money now in the Exchequer, ready againſt any Emergency.

An Expreſs arrived late laſt Night, ſaid to come from Liſbon, with ſome Diſpatches of great Importance.

Orders are gone to all our Sea Ports, and Maſters of Veſſels in the Government's Service, employed againſt the Smugglers, to ſecure all Foreign Paſſengers, with their Trunks, &c. and to convey them before ſome Magiſtrate, or Commanding Officer, to be examined.

It is further ſaid, that Sir Edward Hawke will ſoon take upon him the Command of a Fleet of Obſervation, to cruize on the French Coaſts.

Some Letters from Liſbon adviſe, that a Rupture is looked upon as unavoidable between Portugal and Spain, the Latter having already committed ſome Hoſtilities upon the Portugueſe in the Brazils.

A Letter from Portſmouth ſays, that a very ſtrict Guard is kept at the Dock Yard there, and Centinels are placed in every Part of it, at 100 Yards Diſtance from each other. All Perſons coming into the Yard are examined. This Precaution is taken on account of private Intelligence received from France, that ſome Perſons intend ſetting fire to it. The like Guard is kept on board all his Majeſty's Ships in the Harbour; and at Night their Ladders are pulled on board, and the Ports ſhut.

The Dallam Tower, Preeſton, from Dublin for Cheſter, with upwards of 70 Paſſengers on board, was lately loſt between Scares and Holyhead, and all but one Man were drowned.

The Publication of Mr. Legge's Papers is likely to be a Source of abundant Matter for political Writers.

We learn from Berlin, that the Number of Law Suits finally determined in that Capital, amount to 335 ſince the firſt of June laſt; which Expedition gave ſo much Satisfaction to the King, that his Majeſty made a handſome Compliment to the Judges on the Occaſion.

Letters from Verſailles, of Nov. 21, ſay, that on Sunday before, and the Day theſe Letters came away, ſome great Councils were held there in the Preſence of the King. Nothing tranſpires of the Affairs that were agitated in them; but from ſeveral Circumſtances it is conjectured, that they turned upon Objects of the utmoſt Importance, in Conſequence of which the Public are in Expectation of ſeeing ſome ſtriking Meaſures ſpeedily purſued.

This Morning early two Meſſengers were diſpatched to two foreign Courts, one, it is ſaid, to France, the other to Spain, to demand a categorical Anſwer to ſome important Queſtions put to them.

Dec. 8. We ſhall not pretend to ſay what will be the Event of the Diſputes between Spain and Portugal, but ſo far we will venture to aſſure our Readers, that ſome Diſputes do ſubſiſt, which, if not ſpeedily ſettled, may involve all Europe.

Mr. Wilkes has moſt actually taken a Houſe at Calais, for the greater Convenience of printing his New North Briton, or ſomething as flaming, which will conſtantly be tranſmitted to England every Week, during the next Seſſions of Parliament.

PHILADELPHIA, February 21.

On the 6th Instant, in the Night, the House of George Brown, Millwright, in Kennet, Chester County, was entirely consumed by Fire, when two young Women were burnt to Death, and all the Furniture destroyed, except one Bed, and a Box, with some Papers in it. His Children were then under Inoculation for the Small-Pox, and there being a Fire in an upper Room where they lay, and a wooden Flooring under Part of the Hearth, it is thought the Fire burst through, catched that Flooring, and got to such a Height before it was known, that it was with the greatest Difficulty any of the Family were saved, it being an old Frame Building. Brown himself was the first that happened to awake, and running down Stairs, on opening a Room Door where the Fire was burning very fiercely, it burst out with great Violence, the Smoke of which, it is supposed, stifled the young Women as they lay in Bed, Part of one of their Bodies being found in the same Posture she was thought to lye in. Upon this he went up Stairs again, and bursting out a Window, hung by it by one Hand, and with the other handed down his three Children, as they were brought to him; and his Wife got also safe out by his Assistance. Two of his Apprentices jumped out at a Garret Window on the hard Ground, by which they were much hurt, but are likely to do well; and two other Apprentices got out unhurt from the lower Part of the House.

Since which a Gentleman's Negro Boy has broke out with the Distemper; but he has it very lightly, and is the only one in Town that has got it; notwithstanding the Reports spread that it was in Four Places: Perhaps Ten Miles off it may be said Forty Places. Diligent Enquiry has been made into this Particular, and the above is the Truth, which the Public may depend on, Weekly, whether it should cease or spread.
